HISTORY OF DEMOCRACY IN THE UNITED STATES. By the Author of the Republic of the United States, &c.

THIS important work is now in press, the first volume of which will be issued early in the autumn of 1854. The publication of this work will be continued by the subscribers; and in due time they will publish in the several States a complete list of agents, who will be prepared to furnish copies promptly in every part of the Union.

That the author may have ample time to prepare

That the author may have ample time to prepare his work according to his views of completeness; that the publishers may be enabled to issue the numbers with promptness and at stated periods, thereby protecting the interest of their agents, the following arrangement is announced in the full confidence that it will prove acceptable to all, viz: To stereotype the next six numbers, making ten in all, thus completing the first volume before any more are published.

The numbers will then be issued monthly, without interruption, to the end. Those who prefer

The numbers will then be issued monthly, without interruption, to the end. Those who prefer the volume bound will be accommedated without extra charge for binding; and the numbers already published, from one to four, will be taken in part pay, if not injured, at their full cost to subscribers.
In announcing this unavoidable delay for a few months, the publishers are not unmindful of the earnest desire of many speedily to possess the months, the publishers are not unminded of the carnest desire of many speedily to possess the work. The necessity of accommodating the author, whose labors are incessant, will appear obvious to all without particular explanation.

on the same liberal terms.

The White Paint is warranted pure, and is un surpassed by any other article in use. It is sold either dry or ground in oil.

The Brown Zine is made only from the New Jersey Zinc Ores, and is extensively used as a protection to iron or other metallic surfaces. It is cheap and economical paint.

The Brown Stone Color is unequalled as a dura ble covering for Cottages, Depots, Bridges, &c. The consumption of it is very large, and it has given entire satisfaction.

All the paints manufactured by the company are of the highest excellence, some important improve ments having recently been discovered and ap-plied in their preparation, and they are warranted to keep soft and fresh in the kegs, any reasonable length of time. In this respect, they are superior to any others in market.

RECOMMENDATIONS.
U. S. NAVY YARD, GOSPORT, VA.,
January 20, 1854.
To C. E. Detmold, President N. J. Zinc Co., N Y. SIR: A series of experiments conducted by me, with the utmost care, during the past three years, upon all the various paints and artificial prepara-tions for the preservation of timber, have led me to the important discovery that the White Zinc Paint, manufactured by the New Jersey Zinc Com pany, serves as a perfect protection against the ravages of the marine worm, and the formation of barnacles, whilst no other paint or preparation of any kind combines the same protective effect.

I am now preparing a full report on this impor-tant subject to the Bureaus of Yards and Docks, at Washington, and shall send with it a complete series of specimens of wood and metal plates, which were covered with the different paints and preparations, and then exposed alike for an entire season, in salt water, opposite this navy yard; all of which illustrates, in the most striking manner, the invaluable qualities and decided superiority of your White Zinc Paint over all other kinds of paints, especially for marine purposes.

You are at liberty to give full publicity to the above stated facts, which are of too much importance to be kept from the naval and commercial world. I am, respectfully, your obedient servant, JAMES JARVIS, Inspector U. S. Navy Yard, Gosport, Va. OFFICE OF THE N. Y. AND LIVERPOOL U. The steamers of this company use exclusively the Zinc Paint manufactured by the New Jersey Zinc Company, experience having proved its decided an experience and proved its decided.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEYS GENER-having just published an octavo edition of the official decisions of the Attorneys General of the official decisions of the Attorneys General of the United States, expounding the Constitution, subsisting Treaties with foreign nations, and the Indian tribes, and giving construction to the public laws of the country, in five volumes, averaging 750 pages each, comprising all the decisions of that character made since the adoption of the federal constitution, and prior to the 4th day of July, 1851, and to be continued up to the present time, with synoptical notes and copious indices, he respectfully announces his readiness to answer orders for the work, and to forward the same by express, or otherwise, to any part of the United States.

express, or otherwise, to any part of the United States.

Being the productions of distinguished jurists and civilians, fully authorized to decide the various questions of civil common, international constitutional, commercial, and municipal law which have arisen in the course of the administration of the government, and bearing, as they do, upon nearly every subject of civil polity and jurisdiction, it necessarily follows that they are scarcely inferior in importance to the Constitution which they defend, and the laws which they explain. They not only set forth the political economy and fundamental principles of the federal government, and the rules and regulations enforced in its administration, but they also define the powers and duties, and, in many instances, the compensation of its civil and military officers. The subjects of national sovereignty, neutrality extradition, &c., are therein thoroughly discussed, and our revenue laws, land laws, patent laws, pension laws, &c., commented upon and explained. It is, therefore, believed that public ministers, consuls, governors of States, district attorneys, marshals, collectors of customs, sur veyors of ports, naval officers, Indian agents. attorneys, marshals, collectors of customs, surveyors of ports, naval officers, receivers of public moneys, registers of land offices, Indian agents, officers of the army and navy, and, indeed, all public men will find these volumes a valuable acquisition to their libraries.

The editions put up in the style of Howard's Reports of Decisions of the Supreme Court, and sold at the moderate price of three dollars per

PROSPECTUS

"WASHINGTON SENTINEL." PROPOSE to publish in the city of Washing ton, in September, a political newspaper, under the name of the WASHINGTON SENTINEL.

NEL.

In doing so, it is proper I should make known the principles it will maintain, and the policy it will advocate.

It will support cordially and carnestly the principles of the Democratic party of the United States, it does not propose to be the organ of any Department of the Government, except in so far as an independent maintenance of the doctrines of that party may represent its opinions and express its views.

party may represent its opinions and express its views.

It will not be ambitious to commend itself to the people by a blind flattery of their rulers. It will seek public support by the bold around of the sentiments which are common to the genuine. Democracy of the Union, and by the condemnation of all such as may conflict with them, from whatever quarter they may come. It will seek to be (and it will endeavor to deserve the title) the organ of the Democratic party of the United States.

The SENTINEL will maintain, as a fundamental truth of that great party, that the States formed the Union between them by the ratification of the Con-Union between them by the ratification of the Constitution as a compact; by which, also, they created the Federal Government, and delegated to it, as their common agent, the powers expressly specified in it, with an explicit reservation of all others to the States, or to their separate governments. The exercise of any powers beyond these thus delegated, is, therefore, an usurpation of the reserved authority of the States by the agent of their own creation.

The Sentinel will uphold and defend the Union upon the basis of the rights of the States—under upon the basis of the rights of the States—under the Constitution—and thus by sedulously guarding he latter, it will the more effectually strengthen and perpetuate the former.

With regard to the exercise of the powers of the With regard to the exercise of the powers of the Federal Government, the SENTINEL will take as the principles of its action, that Congress shall exercise no power which has not been delegated by the Constitution, according to a strict and fair interpretation of its language and spirit; and that it shall not seek to attain indirectly an object through the exercise of constitutional power, for the direct attainment of which it has no delegation of power. In other words, all powers exercised must be clearly granted, and all granted powers must be used for no purpose, except such as is clearly intended by the Constitution.

In respect to the internal administration of the

In respect to the internal administration of the Government, the SENTINEL will sustain the settled policy of the Democratic party. It will labor to medicate this cardinal doctrine of Democratic inneuleate this cardinal doctrine of Democratic in-ternal policy:—that this Government will best-promote the freedom and prosperity of the people of the States, by being less ambitious to exercise power, and more anxious to preserve liberty; and by leaving to the individual States the manage-ment of all their domestic concerns—while it con-tents itself with guarding the confederacy from external violence, and directing the foreign policy of the country to the promotion of the common of the country to the promotion of the comm nterests, and defence of the common rights, and nonor of the States composing it.

The Sential will advocate such a progressive foreign policy as will suit, itself to the exigencies, and correspond with the expanding interests of the country. That policy should be energetic and decided; but should temper firmness with liberality and make its highest ends consist with the strictest principles of justice. The real interests of the will be its guide in the course the SENTINEL will

The national policy of the world in this age is essentially aggressive. In the growing sense of weakness of some of the nations of the Old World, and the ambitious restlessness of others, a con non motive to colonial extension has developed Our settled determination to repel interference

Our settled determination to repel interference from abroad with our domestic concerns, will prompt us to avoid it in the affairs of other countries, unless by their foreign or colonial policy our peace should be threatened, our security endangered, or our interests invaded. For when the selfish interests of other nations prompt a foreign or colonial policy which infringes upon our rights, and places in the pathway of our commerce a dangerous and unfriendly rival, such a policy must be resisted by remonstrance, and, if need be, by be resisted by remonstrance, and, if need be, by

Our foreign policy should, indeed, be defensive; but to be properly defensive, it must sometimes be apparently aggressive. Our administration should be vigilant, watchful, and energetic. The world be vigilant, watchist, and chergetic. The worter is full of important movements, commercial and political, deeply concerning American trade and American power. It is time we had an American foreign policy. We must have it. We cannot avoid it if we would. We have larger interests, and avoid it if we would. We have larger interests, and a greater stake in the world and its destiny, than every other people. We occupy the best portion of a continent, with no neighbors but a colony, and a worn-out) anarchical despotism. We are the only people whose own land, without colonial detendencies, is washed by the two great oceans of the world. Our agricultural productions are more varied and more essential to civilized life, and to human progress—our mineral and manufacturing resources more vast—our facilities and capacity for internal and foreign commerce more extended than those of any other people living under one government. A continent, to a great extent, un-explored and exhaustless in its yet hidden wealth explored and exhaustless in its yet hidden wealth is at our feet. European trade seeks the great East through avenues which are at our doors, or must be made through our own limits. Europe, Asia, Africa, and the isles of the sea, lying all around us, look to us as the rising power, through the agency of whose example, and ever widening and extending, though peaceful influences, the blessings of liberty, civilization, and religion, are destined to triumph over the barbarism and superstition of the millions of the world. And shall such a neeple refuse to lay hold upon their destiny, and a people refuse to lay hold upon their destiny, and act upon the high mission to which it is called? A mission so full of hope, though so laden with responsibility, which, if properly directed, must make our confederacy the harbinger of peace to the world, as well as the peaceful arbiter of its destiny.

and earnest foreign policy, such as the condition of the country demands; but it will advocate it under the flag of the country—nowhere else. Its foreign policy must be consistent with the spotless honor and unimpeachable good faith of the country. To be respectable at home and abroad, and to be grent in the eyes of the world, it must ask for nothing but what is right, and submit to nothing that is wrong. It must be liberal and magnanimous to the rights of others, and firm and immoveable in insisting on its own. It must, in fine, be true to its own interests, rights, and honor-it cannot then Such, then, is the chart by which we shall be guided. Independent and free, we shall endeavor to be honest and truthful. The true friends of democratic principles we shall cordially support and defend. Its enemies in the field or in ambush we shall oppose, and on all proper occasions de-

To our future brethren of the press we extend the hand of friendly greeting. The Sentinel is the rival of no press of its own party—the personal enemy of none of the other.

The present Democratic Administration has our best wishes for its success in the establishment of the great principles upon which it came into power; and in its honest labors to attain such an end it and in its honest labors to attain such an end it will find the Sentinell its friend and coadjutor.
